

Hometown MEMORIALS

Hometown Weekly is Proud to Offer Dignified Obituary Services at Competitive Rates

Unlike larger publications whose lengthy obituary sections often look like laundry lists, our paper's smaller size and local focus gives us a unique opportunity to intimately spotlight the individuality of our deceased neighbors. With reasonably-priced options ranging from a few sentences to feature-length, Hometown Weekly is an ideal place to give beloved community members their final bow.

Robert Harwood, Jr.

Obituary

Parents, Robert B. Harwood and Ruth van Zylstra Harwood of Worcester. Also survived by his daughter, Gail Sanders, and her husband, James, of Portsmouth, N.H.; his son Craig and his partner, Diane Pokras, of Medfield; and his son Brent and his wife, Sally, of Wrentham. Also survived by his grandchildren, Michael Sanders and his partner, Alex Avery, of Portsmouth, N.H.; Jeffrey Sanders and his partner, Alex McClung, of Wrentham; his great-granddaughter, Kendall Sanders, of Portsmouth, N.H.; and his cousins, Robert, Tyler Grayson, and his partner, Carly Grayson, of South Freetown, and Olivia Harwood, of Boston.

Attended high school in Worcester and graduated in 1958 from Northeastern University. Served in the Navy during World War II. Worked his entire career for NYNEX/Versar and AT&T. Scott. Worked his entire career for New England Telephone. Gardening buff, an enthusiastic collector of New England coins, and a member of 50 antique societies. Member of 50 antique societies. Member of 50 antique societies. Member of 50 antique societies.

He passed away peacefully at home with his family. Barbara was born on January 25, 1960 in Dedham, MA. She lived in West Roxbury for many years, and has been a resident of Medfield since August 18, 2020. She passed away peacefully at home with her family. Barbara was born on January 25, 1960 in Dedham, MA. She lived in West Roxbury for many years, and has been a resident of Medfield since August 18, 2020. She passed away peacefully at home with her family.

Brad McMillan

Obituary

Pharmacy for nearly 20 years. Brad would later sell the pharmacy and work for various healthcare organizations as a pharmacist, eventually helping people in medical need.

Brad enjoyed working on his yard, doing his local errands in Medfield to the bank and post office and enjoyed trips to Cape Cod especially for the restaurants. "early bird" special. He also took pride in his family's Plymouth Thunderbolt and for many years hosted for the entire family. During his retirement years, Brad would also continue to be active in the community volunteerism and working at both the Medfield and Millis Senior Centers. He loved traveling especially to Cary, North Carolina and Japan, Taiwan to visit his grandchildren.

His bright smile, charity conversations with all and being at the family gatherings with his brothers-in-law & sisters-in-law and niece & nephews were what Brad lived for all the time. Family was always most important to Brad and being with his wife and children and 5 grandchildren filled him each day with joy and happiness.

Brad is predeceased by his father Harold McMillan, mother Maude McMillan, and sisters Janet Neelander and Nancy Hagadone. Brad leaves behind his beloved wife Carolyn Wynn McMillan, son Joe McMillan, daughter, Michelle McMillan (Kobayashi), and daughter, Michelle McMillan (Kobayashi). He was the proud grandfather of Lisa and Mia Uchida and Ben McMillan.

There will be no funeral services.

States and much of Europe. She was working for U.S. Air during that tragic day of 9/11. Luckily, she was able to leave with her crew. The airline industry has experienced many changes since then.

Reflecting back, she was thankful for the exciting and wonderful life she experienced. Barbara had a great sense of humor. Some of her favorite television programs were "Bugs Bunny," "The Three Stooges," "The Jeffersons," and "SpongeBob." She read every book that was ever printed about "All Creatures Great and Small" several times over. Her motto was "don't take yourself too seriously." Barbara, life will not be as happy without you. We will love and remember you forever. John, Kelly, Brendan, and all whom love you.

A Mass of Christian burial was celebrated on Thursday, August 23, at St. Edward the Confessor Church, 133 Spring St., Medfield, MA 02052, after which the family attended a private burial.

Exclusive Hometown Pricing starting at

$65 Per Obituary*

200 words or less ..... $65***

300 words or less
plus a photo ..... $85***

301-500 words,
plus a photo ..... $145***

501-800 words,
plus a photo ..... $325***

801-1000 words,
plus a photo ..... $550***

*Obituaries limited to 1000 words
*prices per obituary, per town*

To learn more about the Hometown Weekly obituaries visit:
www.hometownweekly.net/hometown-weekly-obituary-policy

To place an obituary, call 508-359-2200 or email news@hometownweekly.net

www.hometownweekly.net
Hometown Weekly

Medfield • Walpole • Westwood • Dover • Sherborn • Needham

120 North Meadows Rd., Medfield 02052
Tel. 508-359-2200 • FAX 508-359-2224
ads@hometownweekly.net